The color pink symbolizes the essential role that women play in Kosovo's society, while gold represents the country's vast mineral resources.

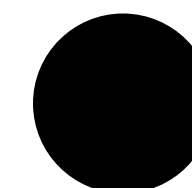

Blue and gold, which are also the colors of the Kosovo flag, are included in the design.

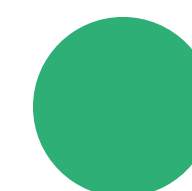

Additionally, the colors red and black were included to reflect the fact that 94% of Kosovo's population is Albanian, adds a patriotic element to the design.

Finally, the color green was incorporated into the logo to symbolize the country's promising green future.

Altogether, these colors come together to create a vibrant and meaningful design that represents the past, present, and future of the Republic of Kosovo.

Government of Kosovo

Vjosa Osmani - President of Kosovo

Albin Kurti - Prime Minister of Kosovo

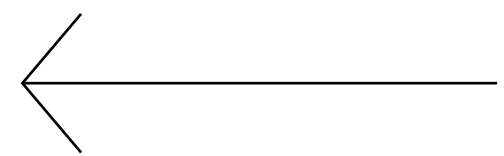

The transformation of the 15th anniversary logo for the Republic of Kosovo's independence into a postal stamp was an occasion of great significance, marked by a prestigious presentation by the Prime Minister of Albania.

The Prime Minister's presentation of the stamp served as a powerful symbol of solidarity and support between the neighboring countries of Kosovo and Albania.

Thank you.
