

“Photobooth” images
large format / polaroid 44x56

Negatives require about 2 years to fully develop or rather... to breakdown.

These images were captured at the Walker Art Center. By complete hap-penstance, this series is of both designers and the public they strive to influence. The irony is you can't tell one from the other—we are all the influenced and the influential, now—just the way it should be.

