HOPS AND GRAINS

And pints of perfection.

Ocho

IPA | 7% ABV | 60 IBU

We took the older English version and added some American attitude. Our version packs a big hop punch but won't leave your palate completely destroyed. Citrus, tropical, floral, slightly spicy, and earthy are the main aromas and flavors you should get from this beer. Our IPA is made using a strong amount of hops during multiple points in the brewday and with dry hopping after fermentation. / 5

Clara

KÖLSCH | 4.6% ABV | 20 IBU

Named after the first child born in Fort Worth, this light and refreshing beer is the ideal choice for people who are first trying craft beer or for those wanting a beer that is light, refreshing, and low in alcohol. The German style has a mild hop character to it and finishes dry leaving you longing for another drink. / 5

Grey Eagle

HEFEWEIZEN | 5.2% ABV | 10 IBU

A traditional German wheat beer. Hop character is very mild if not undetectable with using just enough to help balance out the maltiness. The yeast used to ferment the beer is the most important part of making this recipe. The yeast will contribute flavors to the beer such as clove, banana, vanilla, and some bubble gum. This is a low alcohol beer packed with great flavor which goes great with the very hot days we have here in Fort Worth. / 5

Border Shift

HOPPY LAGER | 5.5% ABV | 55 IBU

This beer is a style of its own not even categorized officially by the BJCP. The India Pale Lager was born out of a desire to have the clean flavors of a lager mixed with the bitterness and hoppy characters of an IPA. We choose a great blend of both American and German hops to provide this beer with a wide range of flavor. The lager yeast used to ferment the beer helps to attribute a smooth and refreshing character to the beer. / 5

Moonrider

OATMEAL STOUT | 6.0% ABV | 28 IBU

A very dark, full bodied, roasty, and malty beer complemented by oatmeal flavor. Some people would describe the body of this beer as smooth, velvety, and silky thanks to a generous addition of oats during the brew. This was once one of the dying styles in the world before American brewers revitalized it with a growing popularity among stout fans. / 5

1849

IRISH RED ALE 5.2% ABV and 18 IBU

A traditional ale which has been brewed by the Irish for many years. This is an easy drinking beer with subtle flavors from a somewhat more complex malt profile. This beer is great for those who want a refreshing beer with just the right amount of flavor. The aromas and flavors of this beer is quite clean with some caramel, toffee, toasty, and biscuit characters. / 5
