

Youth Recovery CT is a state-wide initiative to provide recovery groups to teens, young adults, and families as well as alternative peer group activities for young people. The emblem is an open lotus representing many concepts that are important to the organization including personal growth, recovery, balance, diversity and peer connections/support.

Primary

Single Color

Secondary

Knock-out

