

A Place for Getting High

A statewide campaign to curb driving high in CT, this spot empathized with cannabis users, creating a message from peer to peer rather than a scolding finger from an authority figure... reminding them that there's a place for getting high, and it's not behind the wheel.