

69th Annual Advertising Club of CT Awards Show

Project Description: CAA Happy Travels TV

Bradley International Airport was excited to test advertising on TV for the first time with a relatively small media budget. But since the media test was small, the budget for the creative to support it was also tight. Using existing footage supplemented by a simple shoot, we were able to tell the story of BDL's many benefits, all that lead to happier travels.