

A quick note about UConn Magazine:

With our small staff of 2 full time employees – Lisa Stiepock, editor, and Christa Yung, art director, and a handful of University Communications colleagues who commit part of their time to the magazine – a university photographer, marketing project manager/associate editor and a designer when available, UConn Magazine prints 3 issues a year, with 235,000 copies per issue. It is mailed to all alums, grad and undergrad along with high level stakeholders including legislators such as the governor (important for a state school.) Our alums come from all 5 campuses and 14 schools and colleges – we’ve got surgeons, poets, dairy farmers, astronauts, and anything and everything in between, which means our magazine needs to be of interest to a very diverse group of people.
