Entry Name: Modern Bohemia

Category: Still Life

Client: Dumais Made

Meet Charlie Dumais, a ceramic artist based out of Litchfield, Connecticut specializing in handmade lamps, furniture, objects and accessories. For this assignment, I photographed his recent collection of work, inspired by the mid-century homes nestled throughout the rolling hills of Litchfield. In this case, a Marcel Breuer-design house became the backdrop for the “Modern Bohemia” work. Charlies pieces pair slab-building methods with soft, natural qualities and both the home and its surroundings featured in my photographs were the perfect setting.
