

SLH Identity

An elegant new brand identity system for a senior community property management company and its two premier properties. "Super elegant," they said. "Want it to look like it belongs on an expensive handbag," they said. "Oh, and could they all work together as a system yet still have one reflect a metropolitan property and the other a more rural property?" They said that, too.