

First Time

Part of a new program called Breaking Barriers that strives to help new drivers understand how to handle interactions with police officers. This instructional video is shown to all new drivers in CT as part of their licensing procedure at the DMV.