

ARQUITECTONICA LIVING

The second entry in a multi-book series highlighting the architecture firm Arquitectonica's work. Featuring selected multi-family residential projects from around the globe, it was published in September 2025 by Rizzoli. This volume features several essays and 30+ primary projects richly illustrated with photos, renderings, plans. The photography is a mix of historical images from the firms archives as well as commissioned shoots for the book.

The case is blind debossed with an abstracted rendering of the cover image.

