

Saint Paul's

Episcopal Church, Willimantic

The progressive Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, Willimantic is a church with a diverse member base. Colorful rays radiate from the star, a guiding light with an energy that spreads out from the center. The colors represent the diversity of the congregation and community. The halo connects all of the rays with a cross of light breaking through symbolizing the congregation and community connected through Christ.

Primary

Single Color

Secondary

Knock-out

