

Project Summary: La Dole Vita

La Dolce Vita — Life is sweet... when you discover love.

The wedding celebration of Maria Miranda and Hugh Lowenstein on the grounds of Lyman Allyn Art Museum sought to honor the artistic venue while also embracing the sweetest moment — a couple that almost met each other for 40 years, finally found each other.

A unique M+H brand was applied throughout the event, including the “Eat Dessert First” pastry pop-up shop that took over the museum lobby/gift shop.

Classic black/white striping balanced retro-styled photos and take-away boxes. A custom-crafted 8’ frame, literally framed the ceremony and resulted in an iconic photo that echoed the impressionist paintings found within.

It was a Chef’s kiss — 40 years in the making.
