Derby Girls

Part of a robust campaign to get drivers to stop camping in the left lane, we enlisted Connecticut's premiere roller derby team to help explain how to use lanes the right way. They should know. Part of the campaign was leveraging their personalities and social media followings to send our message. This is photography we shot for Roller Derby player cards.