Roller Derby

Finally, a campaign to get slow drivers out of the left lane! Designed to be instructive rather than punitive (for now), we used Connecticut's premiere roller derby team to teach drivers how to use the lanes properly. And we leveraged their social media followings to spread the message farther.